IN MEMORY OF
Vivian Daisy Dudley
Died February 12, 1923
Member of the Class of 1924

For her sun went down tonight
 Behind gray somber curtains, hanging low,
And after it had passed from sight
 Sent back each rosy tinted afterglow.
May her rest be peaceful as her life;
 Each hidden glowing fire no one may know.
But after she had passed this life,
 Death may reveal what life has failed to show.
For the greatest life is not the one that of wondrous deeds can boast;
 But the life that sweetens some other life
And supplies its needs, at most.

FOREWORD

To aid us in recalling our achievements in athletics, as well as the many other activities in which we participate; to remind us of the many pleasant happenings of our high school career; to convey to the in-coming members, the proper attitude towards this school; we submit the nineteen-hundred and twenty-four volume of the Kay Aitch Ess.

Most of the children you chance to meet,
Went to our school on Riley street,
All were started in the same way
With paper and pencil 'bout their sixth birthday,
Now these children grew up fast;
Big children they became at last.
Not one dunce among the lot!
Not one lesson they forgot!
Polished to a high degree,
As good children ought to be.
Now with faces wise and grave,
You observe them with a smile,
Graduates from the old High School
That makes everything worth while.

A PLEASANT SMILE

"The thing that goes the farthest toward making life worth while,
That costs the least and does the most, is just a pleasant smile.
The smile that bubbles from the heart that loves its fellow men,
Will drive away the clouds of gloom and coax the sun again.
It's full of worth, and goodness, too, with many kindness blent
It's worth a million dollars, and it doesn't cost a cent.
"There is no room for sadness when we see a cheery smile,
It always has the same good luck—it's never out of style.
It nerves us on to try again when failure makes us blue
The dimples of encouragement are good for me and you.
It pays a higher interest, for it is merely lent,
It's worth a million dollars and it doesn't cost a cent.
"A smile comes very easy—you can wrinkle up with cheer,
A hundred times before you squeeze out a soggy tear.
It ripples out, moreover, to the heart-strings it will tug.
And always leaves an echo that is very like a hug.
So smile away. Folks understand what by a smile is meant,
It's worth a million dollars and it doesn't cost a cent."

Mr. H. M. Dixon has labored untiringly with us for the last three years. Mr. Dixon has been a great booster in community affairs such as the Rotary Club and the Hospital Drive.

We all feel that the school as well as other activities will be benefitted by his work.

Lloyd S. Brumbaugh, Principal of the High School has shown an undivided interest in school affairs during the two years he has been with us.

Mr. Brumbaugh received his A. B. degree at Terre Haute State Normal in 1917 and also attended Columbia University during the summers of 1922 and '23.

He is rather reserved as to his overseas experiences, but occasionally in his characteristic witty way, he gives us a flash of "Over There."

The whole Senior class feels the debt of gratitude it owes to Mr. Brumbaugh and extends to him best wishes for his future success.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '24

Mem'ries may come and mem'ries may go, but the mem'ries of our short stay in high school will be everlasting.

It seems such a short time since we were "the little Freshies" in knee-pants and big ties or short dresses and big hair ribbons; now we are "the big Seniors" in bell-bottoms or shingle-bobs.

Miss Valenti, with her motherly ways and firm hand, guided us and protected us through our Freshman year. Under her directions we organized, and our first officers were: President, Thelma Rendel; Vice-President, Lois Holsinger; Secretary and Treasurer, Edgar Thomas. Our colors, throughout school, were to be Old Rose and Silver, and our flower, the sweet-pea.

Then came the years of fight to conquer "Old Mr. Ignorance," together with many pleasures, such as parties, hikes, etc.

The third year it fell on us to give the usual Junior Play. A large number answered the call for try-outs, and a very pleasing cast was chosen. Under the direction of Miss Owen, with Miss Jennings, as assistant, this group of amateur actors put their shoulders to the wheel and set the play in the land of success.

Next came our chance to give the Seniors a banquet. Again the class showed their ability to work together and the Junior-Senior banquet of '23 was recorded on the pages of history, as a success.

Time passed and we were regarded with reverence and awe, by the lower classmen, just as we had regarded the Seniors of '20. Once more, feeling a great responsibility cast upon us, we settled down to publish the twelfth volume of the Kay Aitch Ess. We hope that we have not failed in that undertaking.

Once more it was our time to stage a play. "The Charm School," a very interesting comedy in four acts, was chosen, and with a somewhat experienced cast, this play added one more success to the list for us.

Along with these activities we donated members from our class, for the school activities such as basketball, football, track, etc. We are proud to say that these members did not discredit the class in the least, but showed great ability.

After our excellent training in Kendallville High School, we feel much more fitted to follow the stony path of life. So exists the class of '24.

—Byron Large.

CLASS PROPHECY

The dark, heavy clouds were scattered about in the heavens, and the far distant thunder gently shook the earth. It was the sort of an afternoon in the early spring, when most people indulge in napping, my eyes fell upon an old, dusty, tear-stained annual of '24. I picked it up gently, as if it were a precious treasure and shook softly from the pages, the dust of the past years. I laid my head wearily on the back of the chair, and the rain as it played its steady patter on the dream of fifteen past years. Hork Prentice, the star of K. H. S. days, had found success on the other hemisphere and was still pursuing the basketball. Harry Young, and Robert Trombold were playing important roles in one of the leading New York theaters! Thanks to the Senior play! Mentor, after several years of concealment, had introduced a practical theory for perpetual motion. Good for you, Mentor! The last account of Clara Billman and Orval Bair was that they were happily married, and living on a farm near Kendallville. Paul Knight and Archie Koon, have at last come to an agreement and are making themselves famous in the taxi business. Reginald Matzinger, has resigned his position as his father's assistant grocery clerk, and means to establish himself in the business in the near future. Warren and Lloyd have been able to trick the detective, they are now patiently waiting in Albion for their conviction. Poor boys, the world isn't treating you square, is it? Announcements of the approaching marriage of Kenneth Lash and Beulah Groh have been received by several of Kenneth's friends. That's fine, Kennie, Beulah's an excellent cook. Well, at last, Philip Pepple has reached the height of his ambition—a doctor. Gee, who'd think it, Phillip? Wilma Wiley, Helen Merrill, and Genevieve are—yes, chorus girls, and are at present making their home at Hollywood. Something shook me, I opened my eyes and found nothing but the shabby attic. How disappointed I was and only learn so few of the class of '24. The storm had passed, and the sun was illuminating the heavens with its magnificent rays. Across the sky there seemed to be written, "All is Well."

—Edith Lasho.

The Junior Audubon Club met on the 24th of October, 1923, to organize and to elect officers. The meeting was called to order by last year's President, Catherine Newnam, who presided until a new President was elected. Hutoka Plank was elected president, Majorie Perkins, vice-president, and Robert Kollman, secretary and treasurer. They held three meetings during the years of 1923 and '24, with Miss Katterjohn as sponsor. Many interesting talks were made at the meetings and the club was thought to be a large success by its members. The club was cast into sorrow when its leader, Miss Katterjohn, was sent to the hospital on account of illness. Her absence was felt by all and the members realized what a fine teacher she was.

This makes the sixth year for the HI-Y club with Otis B. Nelson as its advisor. Otis B. Nelson has been a very faithful helper of the club. The club held their meetings at the community building, every Wednesday evening. In order to join this organization any high school boy with sixteen or more credits makes application to one of the members; then by a vote of two-thirds of the club and consent of the advisor, he becomes a member.

The club sent delegates to the Older Boys' Conference at Michigan City and to the HI-Y Conference at South Bend. The HI-Y club sponsored the High School Halowe'en party and held a Mixer party with the basket ball men as guests. The club conducted another Lyceum Course this year; this was a benefit to the community and was a financial success.

The Blue Triangle Club has been one of the active societies in Kendallville High School for the past few years.

During the school year of 1923-'24 they have done charitable work. Around Christmas they made dolls and toys to send to a Hospital for invalid children. They have also sent flowers and gifts to the sick.

They sponsored the Mother and Daughter banquet which was given at the Community building, February 14, 1924, and have had several enjoyable parties.

They also have sold candy at Basket Ball games and the Tournament.

The receiving set was rebuilt by the chief operator and a number of stations from all over the United States were heard.

MUSIC NOTES OF "24"

On October 12, the Girls' Glee Club had the honor of singing for the Northern Indiana Teachers' Association, held at Fort Wayne. All numbers given by the girls were very well received. The girls were accompanied by Miss Wilhite.

The "Nightingales", of K. H. S., have surely made good their talent this year. Such must be the case for they were asked to participate in the monthly Community Orchestra Concert of November 13. This Concert Orchestra is one of the best music organizations in the city, and this speaks well for the Girls' Glee Club. Their numbers were:

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Weir Libey
Ed Pride
Henry Kimmel
Robert Kolman
Francis Teders
Willard Jennings
Darius Frazee
Linford Faylor

Oland Autenrieth
Robert Henry
Harold Sherman
Bruce Bolton
Fritz Holzer
Marlin Knight
Herbert Schenher
Archie Koon
Byron Large

"To a Wild Rose."

"By the Waters of Minnetonka," Lieurance.

By request they repeated these numbers at the Music Memory Concert of March 14, given by the same orchestra.

The program of the Mother-Daughters' banquet always proves to be very interesting. The numbers given by the Girls' Glee Club were no small part of the program, shown by the very generous applause they received. The Girls' Quartette also sang a group of very delightful numbers.

The High School orchestra made some very good appearances this season. They furnished special music for both the Junior and Senior plays. They featured in the High School Concert. Especially well were their numbers received at this concert. The Orchestra also contributed to a large part of the program at Commencement and Baccalaureate. The appearance at the Matinee Music Club on April 17 was very well received.

Perhaps the greatest service of the Orchestra of "24" was the accompanying of the entire Operetta "Miss Cherryblossoms." Very much credit is due the Orchestra for the success of this Opera.

MUSIC

One of the greatest achievements of the music department of "'24" was the High School Concert. This is the first year a complete concert has ever been given by the music department. The plan is to make the High School Concert an annual production. This new venture was successful in every way and much credit is due Miss Wilhite, who supervised the program. Since this is the first recital of the various music organizations of K. H. S. we think it deserving to print the program.

Synopsis

Colonel and Mrs. Dangerfield, remnants of the old Aristocrats, have gone abroad for a short time leaving their four children to take care of the house. While they are abroad the old Colonel becomes ill and an operation is found necessary. This unexpected prolongation of their stay leaves the children in a bad financial condition with the insurance, taxes, and other bills to pay and their money almost gone.

With the help of Randy Weeks they manage to rent the house to a Yankee millionaire, Burton Crane, who refuses to tolerate negro servants, making it necessary to dispose of them and hire white servants from out side. At the last minute the servants do not come and the children, who need the money badly, do not know what to do. Olivia proposes that they take the part of the servants. She takes the part of Jane Ellen, the cook; Elizabeth Araminta, the chamber-maid; Paul becomes Smithfield, the butler; Charles Assumes the part of Brindlebury, the boot-black.

Mrs. Falkener, her daughter, Cora, and a lawyer, Sonon Tucker, arrive as guests with Burton Crane. Mrs. Falkener is anxious for Burton to propose to Cora, but Cora loves Thomas Lefferts, an statistical poet. Mrs. Falkener begins to find fault with the servants there. Araminta and Brindlebury are discouraged for insulting her.

Burton Crane falls in love with Jane Ellen and does not like it when he finds Randy Weeks' handkerchief in the kitchen. Mrs. Falkener and Cora leave; Benton decides to give up the house. The night he is leaving he learns that Jane Ellen is Olivia and she tells him the true story.

"The Charm School," presented by the Senior Class of '24, was one of the best plays ever staged in K. H. S. As the play opens we see a typical boy's room in a New York apartment. Austin Bevans, an automobile salesman, finds himself unexpectedly heir to a girls' boarding school. He immediately takes possession of the school as principal, very much to the dissatisfaction of his pals. His extraordinary ideas of educating girls to be "charming" causes much agitation in the school. Upon filling his position, the inevitable occurred, when the most prominent girl of the school, Elise Benedotti, falls in love with him. In holding to his principles he refuses to accept her love. His disapproval overwhelms her and to find consolation she runs away. When the news reaches Austin, he at once pursues her, and after several thrilling adventures brings her back to school.

SOCIETY

1923 JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

One of the charming events among the closing activities of the 1922-'23 school year was the Junior-Senior banquet held at the high school auditorium, when the Seniors of 1923 were the guests of the class of 1924.

The auditorium with its elaborate decorations gave the appearance of an Arabian tent. The Senior class colors, purple and gold, were used profusely in carrying out the color scheme. At one end of the room a garden scene was portrayed. The Bickle Orchestra occupied this space and furnished music during the dinner hour. Dinner was served at six-thirty by the Domestic Science department, of which Miss Miriam Diggins was supervisor.

After dinner a very pleasing program was given with Byron Large acting as toastmaster. Favors of the evening were in the form of small booklets containing the program. Ten dances and two specials, by the orchestra, were enjoyed at the close of the program.

OUR SPOOK PARTY

On Hallow's Eve, October 31, two hundred and thirty-five of the student body and faculty gathered in the Gym for our first semester party. The Gym was decorated to suit the occasion, for you all know that Miss Black was the decorator.

At seven-fifteen the Grand March began. Superintendent and Mrs. Dixon acted as judges of the costumes. Prizes were awarded to Jeanette Goke as being best dressed; Retha De Voe and Gwendolyn Shippy, as cleverest dressed. Fortunes were told, stunts were given, and games were played. Then came the eats! Oh, Boy! Sweet Cider! Popcorn Balls! And Doughnuts! Galore!

The refreshments seemed to agree with us very well so we spent the rest of the evening in dancing. The party broke up at ten-thirty when our High School "Jazz" Orchestra played "Home-Sweet-Home."

FRESHMAN PARTY

The Freshmen held their first class party November 21. Mr. Pring, the Freshman advisor, staged some contests during the first part of the evening in which everybody took part.

During the evening a boxing match was held, the fighters being Richard (Casey) Jones and Howard (Shorty) Lash. "Casey," the celebrated fighter from Argentina, was knocked out in the third round by "Shorty," who hails from Kansas.

A minstrel stunt was also put on.

The Freshmen Orchestra played for the dancers; who proved to be few. At the close of the evening, pleasing refreshments were served and the Freshies departed all voting their first party a success.

Society

JUNIOR CAST PARTY

On the evening of December the third, we, the members of the Junior cast, and our co-workers, met at the home of Anne Ricket. Dinner was served for us at six bells and no one left the table without being more than satisfied. The table was prettily decorated with place cards to represent each character of the Junior Play. The favors were candy suckers, dressed as negro mammys, representing the negro mammy of the play.

The rest of the evening, we had a jolly time playing games and dancing. When everybody departed, we expressed ourselves "in the usual way."

THE SOPHOMORE PARTY

The Sophomores celebrated the casting off of their childish pranks and Freshman green at a party in the "gym" January 11, 1924. The party opened with a one-act tragedy entitled "The Cannibal Isle," after which games and dancing were enjoyed throughout the evening. Late in the evening refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, cocoa, and ice-cream suckers. You would never know that these Sophomores had once been Freshies.

HI-Y MIXER PARTY

On April 4, an enjoyable evening was spent in the high school auditorium, when the Hi-Y club entertained the basketball team and their lady friends. An indoor tournament and track meet, executed by Bob Trombold with Miss Black as assistant, was the principal feature of the evening's entertainment. Some of the events were the funnel race, shot put, high jump, tennis and football. The most exciting of these was the milk drinking contest, in which Doyle Todd defeated Everett Haynes. This tipped the score balance for Todd's side, which was accordingly presented with a loving cup. Refreshments were served, after which the party broke up. Messrs. and Mesdames O. O. Guymon, L. S. Brumbaugh and W. K. Pring were there to share in the fun. Everybody reported a very good time.

JUNIOR HI-Y PARTY FOR GIRL RESERVES

On the evening of March 13, when the Junior Hi-Y and Girl Reserves gathered it looked as if old "Saint Pat" himself had come to help us celebrate.

The fellows entertained the girls; that is, they furnished the eats. Over sixty persons attended the banquet and we were favored with toasts by members of the clubs. The banquet proved a success. Everyone appreciated the fine spirit shown by Mr. and Mrs. Pring in helping to make this event a memorable one.

Later in the evening we went into the Gym, where games were played, one of which was a "suit-case" race. Dancing was the special feature of the evening.

The party broke up about ten o'clock and as the boys entertained the girls, they had to escort them home. Even the Freshies who didn't have girls called it the best time they had ever had.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB PARTY

On the evening of February the first, the Girls' Glee Club held their first party in the High School "gym." The "gym" was lighted with many floor lamps, which added a cozy atmosphere and sociable feeling to us all.

They played games, including horse shoe and a mimic game of basket ball. After the games were over everyone joined in a one-step circle. A few young men happened in upon our party and several of our girls were soon lost. You know how 'tis! ! !

At a late hour refreshments were served and then the party broke up. Everyone expressed themselves as having an enjoyable evening.

The Girl Reserves, a branch of the Y. W. C. A., has shown itself to be an organization of both public service and social interest.

Several enjoyable parties were held, at one of which Christmas gifts were made for the inmates of the Tuberculosis Hospital, at Muncie, Ind. Gifts of food were presented to poor families. The Mother and Daughter Banquet, the most important function given annually by the Girl Reserves, was a success socially and financially. Candy sales were held at the High School, and at the basket ball games and tournament.

The co-operation and interest shown by the girls has made this a most successful year.

THE END OF A PERFECT DAY

After nearly colliding with a speck of coal soot, and barely escaping injuries from a snow-flake, I at last landed with only a few scratches, a bum eye, and minus a wing, into a mammoth cavern on Mary Jones' face.

Just a bit of the family pedigree before I begin my story. My mother was a strong, persistent, hard-to-weaken sort of a germ. My father was a half uncle to Peter Tapeworm and his alertness to attack was inherited by his only son, who was "me."

Well, to my story; as I said, Mary Jones happened to be the first one I encountered; so remembering my mother's careful instructions, I flew right up until I could feel Mary's warm breath chilling my pores. After shooting the rapids, I landed in the warm, swan-like throat of Miss Jones. I made my bed upon Mary's tonsil and there I ate and slept like a fortunate Sultan.

Time passed and one day I was much surprised and annoyed by a visit from a strange and peculiar visitor. The atmosphere of his very presence nearly wrecked me. His departure left me weak and mentally unbalanced.

Then when my life was young yet, I was gently lifted from my flowery bed of ease, and placed in a glass container, sealed tightly, and sent on a long, tiresome Journey. Upon reaching my destination every bone and joint in my body was carefully examined. Each muscle and fiber was pulled away from its brethren and the poking and stirring gave me a hated-sort of a sensation. Finally I was thrown away after moments of intense agony when I heard that dreadful verdict pronounced through the muffled lips of a man, "He'll not hurt anyone else, I assure you."

My perfect day had come to an end, but I felt relieved when a form of realization met my hazy glance and something whispered gently in my ear that I would live again only in the form of another unfortunate germ.

FAREWELL

Farewell to thee, old K. H. S.,
The Seniors parting, call,
Good luck be with you through the years,
Is hoped and wished by all.

Our memory takes us back again
To Freshmen trials and cares;
The scars of which through all four years,
Each heavy heart still wears.

We, once again, recall our days
Of Sophomore pride and joy,
Of trousers long on quite short boys,
Of maidens sweet and coy.

The Junior days seemed best of all.
For we were doubly blessed:
Respected by the Senior class,
Looked up to by the rest.

Then all too soon the years had gone,
Till Senior days were here:
Then quickly passed from first to last,
That most eventful year.

Farewell to thee, old K. H. S.,
We hope you'll miss us some;
For we look back with tear-dimmed eyes,
To lessons we have done.

We'll keep your teachings in our hearts,
The game of life we'll play;
To the best of our ability,
In a true and upright way.
—Grace Trowbridge, C-24.

The following column is conducted by I. M. ITT. Kay Aitch Ess. Any-one wishing information on any subject, may, by writing to Mr. Itt receive the desired knowledge through this column.

If the earth was cubical, instead of spherical, which side would be the longest?
Georgia Clark.

Dear Georgia:

Such a thing has never been thought of very much, but certain scientists, including M. Addicks and A. Koon have proved to their perfect satisfaction that if such a circumstance were possible, the side nearest the moon would be the longest and have the greatest area.
I. M. Itt.

Dear Mr. Itt:

Who was it said George Washington was born in 1940?

Jake Shaffer.

Dear Jake:

When Jim Martin gave the Gettysburg address in 1549, before the League of Nations, he gave a short biography of Washington. It was at this time that he established Washington's birth-date.

I. M. Itt.

Dear Mr. Itt:

Does the sun go south in the winter to keep warm?

Archie Koon.

Dear Archie:

You have probably heard that all the New York beauties go South in the winter, especially to Palm Beach where they indulge in the winter sport of swimming. The sun goes south just to follow the girls.

I. M. Itt.

Dear Mr. Itt:

Is Webster's Dictionary a good love story?

Elsie Pinkney.

Dear Elsie:

I have never read it, but from what I hear, when Mr. Edison wrote it, he was rather a theological bug and it is more history than fiction.

I. M. Itt.

Dear Mr. Itt:

Has February got thirty or thirty-one days?

Gerald Shoup.

Dear Gerald:

Why didn't you ask Mr. Pring? He is married and surely knows that it has twenty-nine.

I. M. Itt.

Dear Mr. Itt:

Do window panes hurt?

John Kellner.

Dear John:

The pain is on the order of Robert's Burns.

I. M. Itt.

Dear Mr. Itt:

Did Babe Ruth invent the modern baby creeper?

Dale Wible.

Dear Dale:

No, but he makes baseball fans.

I. M. Itt.

Dear Mr. Itt:

Is Sherlock Holmes a pianist or an undertaker?

Mentor Addicks.

Dear Mentor:

He is an undertaker. He undertakes to hunt down criminals.

I. M. Itt.

Dear Mr. Itt:

Did the Civil War take place before Columbus discovered America?

Hutoka Plank.

Dear Hutoka:

Yes. Washington led the Indians and John Pershing the negroes.

I. M. Itt.

Dear Mr. Itt:

Why do people talk of moonshine so much? Are they lovesick?

Wilma Wiley.

Dear Wilma:

People are just as young as they used to be. They love to sit and drink in its intoxicating loveliness which goes to their heads like wine.

I. M. Itt.

of high school athletics.

COACH GUYMON

Coach Guymon, as Kendallville High's Mentor, has been at Kendallville but two years during which time he has developed two of the best basketball teams in the history of K. H. S. Guymon has coached two district championship teams.

In football, Guymon's warriors have won seven games, lost three, and tied one, in two years of football. These teams were developed by Coach Guymon alone.

In track, Guymon coached a team which scored one hundred and seventy-eight points.

Guymon coached two men who were able to cop honors at the sectional meet and to score at the state.

Guymon is the right type of man for any school. He believes in clean speech, clean scholarship, and clean athletics. How could a man fail with such a foundation?

The fellows always want to win for dear old K. H. S. and Guymon. "Guymon we're for you always."

BASKET BALL

King Basket Ball holds a lofty place in the minds of all High School students. Kendallville High was honored by winning the District tourney again this year. Kendallville has lost but one District championship in eight years in which Kendallville has been represented on the basket ball court. Had Kendallville had the privilege of playing on a regulation floor, Kendallville's name would probably be higher in basket ball circles than the position which it now holds.

Basket Ball takes the cream of every high school to match wits with opposing schools. Only one school can be state champions and goes to show that over seven hundred schools must be eliminated. But it is understood that basket ball develops real men, who are learning to take their place in the world as business men. After all, it isn't so much the victories and defeats that count, but did our team lose or win on the square.

BASKET BALL

GEORGE PRENTICE

(Capt.) (Floor Guard)

Hork captained the team through a very successful season. He has a good eye for long baskets, and is a guard that is hard to beat. He has played on the varsity three years. This is his last year, and he will surely be missed, as his place will be a hard one to fill. He was chosen all-sectional guard.

❖ ❖ ❖

JOHN HENRY

(Forward) (Capt. Elect)

All sectional forward.

String has played consistently for two years and has been elected to lead the cagers of the crimson and gold for the season of 1924-'25. String was high point man for this season. We feel Johnny will make a great name for himself in his Senior year.

BASKET BALL

EDGAR THOMAS

(Forward)

Eddie, another fighting Senior has fought a valliant fight for K. H. S.

Whenever Thomas broke loose, look out opponents. "Just ask Angola." Eddie was a quick-thinking, hard working forward whose place will be difficult to fill.

HARRY YOUNG

(Back Guard)

All Sectional guard.

Ebb has been a mighty defensive man for the last three years. He has stopped many opponent rallies just at the critical moment. Ebb has played his best and last for K. H. S. It will take a real man to take Young's place

GERALD DU WAN

(Center)

All sectional center.

Jerry is just a Sophomore and making the all sectional as early as that shows that DuWan will be a tower of strength to the K. H. S. in basket ball.

At times Jerry can't be stopped. Ft. Wayne South Side will testify to that.

"Tear 'em up, Jerry, we're for you always.

BASKET BALL

DOYLE TODD

(Center)

Todd worked hard, improved nicely, and was rewarded by wearing a K. H. S. uniform. Todd will be unable to play next year as he is a Senior. Doyle played hard and with all the fight he had, when called upon.

ARTHUR WAGNER

(Forward)

As utility man, Wagner could be called upon at any time and not affect the scoring machine at all. Wagner is a clever and fast forward, who should make high bids for regular forward in 1924-'25.

EVERETT HAYNES

(Forward)

Haynes was a valuable man at any position. He was a hard fighter and always ready to do his bit for the school. Haynes will be with the squad next year, and should hold down a regular position.

"Come on, Gang, a little more Pep!"

And who among us can resist yelling louder and harder with those two pieces of masculine humanity before us, wiggling and twisting in their red and yellow suits; or those two alluring pieces of feminine humanity with their come-on-and-get-into-the-game smile? The rooters, thus led by these four live wires, fairly raise the roof with cheer after cheer.

Suddenly a commotion is observed at the gym door. Every one is on his feet in an instant! There they come—those sturdy, husky fellows who are responsible for this crowd and these yells!

Yea, Horkee! Yea, Ebb! Yea, String! Yea, Jerry! Yea, Thomas! Yea, team!

And so amid shouts and cheers, the sturdy "five" add another wild victory to the record of K. H. S.

FOOTBALL

This squad donned new uniforms at the opening of the season, and played brilliantly for the old school.

While football had been in the discard for a number of years, it now shows that rapid and wonderful development what K. H. S. athletics are noted for.

In two years K. H. S. has lost but three games, tied one and won seven which we feel is a very good record after working in the manner in which we have.

But, if that old fight and kick is there that's all that is needed.

DARIUS FRAZE (Captain-Elect) (Halfback)

Nick was a swift, clever backfield man, and it usually took a very swift man to compete with him if he once got started. He always managed to get a touchdown or two and against Garrett he ran eighty yards before he was stopped. Frazz will make a very efficient captain; and K. H. S. should be heard of in 1925. "Tear 'em up, Nick, we're for you."

WILLIAM JONES (Fullback)

Casey has a number of years to help K. H. S. As a line plunger, Jones was right there. He made a very good name for himself in the Auburn game plowing through for four touchdowns. Casey's offense was brutal. He wanted a gain and usually got it. Casey weighs over the two century mark. "Hit 'em hard, Casey."

GEORGE PRENTICE (Right Halfback)

Hork, as high point man this year, was one of the best football players that K. H. S. has ever had. Whenever he was called on to punt, pass, or make a gain, he was always there. His playing was featured with long runs and spectacular tackles. It was Hork that put the pep into us in the Garrett game when he went for a touchdown on a fake play.

CAPT. HARRY YOUNG (Quarter-back)

Captain Young led the crimson and gold warriors through a season marred by only two losses of six starts. At the quarterback position he directed all the plays, and put the snap into the other players. Ebb is a hard hitting backfield man, and at all times a fighter.

HENRY KIMMEL (Guard, Tackle)

Hank could play either guard or tackle, and keep the opponent guessing. He could usually manage to break through for a nice tackle or keep the opponent from coming through his guard position. Kimmel played with an eagerness to make a name for K. H. S. Henry will graduate and leave his place to another K. H. S. representative.

WINFRED GASKILL (Guard)

Bud played his last football for K. H. S. along with several other Seniors. He was always reliable, and a hard worker. But would rather play football than eat. His favorite expression was, "What do you mean shoving me around like that?"

LANCE SHAFFER (Center)

With Jake at the center no opposing center had any license to break through for a tackle through center. Although Jake can't go on the stage because of the manager, K. H. S. will welcome him on the football field to fight for the crimson and gold.

GEORGE OGDEN (Guard)

Ogden is another man who can help Frazee in 1925. Ogden played a great game at guard this year and should make a name for himself next year. Gus was a hard fighter and the opposing players knew that he wasn't slow about hitting the man carrying the ball. Gus, let's help K. H. S. in 1925. "We'll all pull for you."

EDGAR THOMAS (End)

Ed was a star at any position on the team. He could play guard, tackle, end, or fullback, with the same fight and push as any man on the team. Ed played every game and played as if his life depended upon winning. Thomas, that's the old spirit. "Another fighting Senior."

PAUL KNIGHT (Tackle)

Knight is one of the clevest tackles K. H. S. has had. He was noted for his ability to spill the man with the ball. Paul figured on the bottom of a large per cent of the tackles made. He wasn't very particular how hard he hit the opponents or where the opposing players would sprawl. Paul is another who will not wear the crimson jersey next year.

HAROLD HANES (Tackle)

As hard a hitting little man as K. H. S. has ever had. Hanes played a wonderful game at tackle. Although handicapped by being rather light, he had the fighting spirit of a panther. Hanes was rewarded for his ability and is now the proud owner of the K. H. S. official "K." "Hanes is a hard hitting Senior."

DOYLE TODD (End)

Doyle was a big, tall Senior, who played on the right end of the line, and was rather determined to hook the ball with that long arm of his. At least Howe could tell you that Doyle slipped one over them and ran across the goal line for a touchdown. Todd's place will be filled by some man as Doyle will be out of school.

ROBERT TROMBOLD

Bob was very unfortunate to turn his ankle in the very first game. No one hated it worse than Bob did himself. We feel confident Bob would have won his letter had he been free from injury. It's hard luck, Bob, but everyone knew you couldn't play with a sprained ankle. The whole student body is back of you and very proud to know how you helped the team as trainer.

MARLIN KNIGHT (Tackle)

Toby, who will wear a crimson jersey next year, will make high bids for regular berth. Toby is not very delicate and should knock the opponents off their feet in 1925. "Knock 'em a winding, Toby."

WILLARD JENNINGS (Guard)

Jess is a big, good natured, hard looking guard, who has more time to serve in K. H. S. Jess didn't get to show his real ability, but, we are sure, he will make good next year. Jess' favorite expression is, "Is my face dirty?"

GEORGE TROMBOLD (Quarterback)

George is working hard to fill the vacancy left by Captain Young. Had George been a little larger, he would have made a number of K. H. S. regulars step some.

RICHARD BERHALTER (End)

Dick uses his head, and plays a nice game at end. Dick has performed at quarterback and makes a fine showing at that position. Dick is another Senior who cannot help next year. He always does his very best and we all know Dick did his share. "Hit 'em again sometimes."

GOSHEN, 7; KENDALLVILLE, 6

The first game of the season with Goshen proved a real battle from start to finish. In the first half neither team was able to score. The ball was kept in the middle of the field until the opening of the third quarter, when Quarterback Rathke made a pretty end run for twenty yards. Immediately, Quarterback Rathke shot a pass to right end Blough, who crossed Kendallville's goal line, making the score with a successful drop kick, seven to nothing. Goshen kicked, the ball landing in the arms of Prentice, right half for K. H. S., who with splendid interference ran ninety yards for a touchdown. The attempted kick failed, leaving Goshen the victor by one point.

COLUMBIA CITY, 0; KENDALLVILLE, 44

Seven touchdowns and two goal kicks accounted for the defeat of Columbia City. The K. H. S. backfield made long gains at will, the first touchdown coming two minutes after the start, Frazee being responsible for three touchdowns. This game showed the driving power of the K. H. S. athletes.

AUBURN, 6; KENDALLVILLE, 43

Auburn was held to a lone touchdown while K. H. S. played with its subs, running the score to 43. Jones, husky fullback for Kendallville, crossed the visitors' goal line four times. The game was one sided, but interesting, because of rivalry between the two schools.

HOWE, 7; KENDALLVILLE, 19

Three touchdowns, by Todd, Jones, and Prentice, and the wonderful fighting spirit of K. H. S. line, paved the way to a 19 to 7 victory for K. H. S. over Howe military academy. Tiny, of Howe, the 210-pound fullback, was thrown for losses by the mad rush of the crimson and gold. The team had the fighting spirit that has made Kendallville popular in athletics.

FT. WAYNE, 45; KENDALLVILLE, 0

The desert scene, as called by every member of the team, is a fitting name for the game played at Ft. Wayne's stadium. The only reason Ft. Wayne didn't win the basket ball game at Kendallville was because the gym was minus about one foot of sand. We feel that snow shoes would have been more appropriate than football cletes.

GARRETT, 3; KENDALLVILLE, 13

The last game of football marked a glorious climax. Garrett has remarked that beef and a line plunging game could not beat the Garrett team. The Crimson and Gold warriors needed such a battle cry, and endeavored to show Garrett we knew a few points about the game.

Kendallville pounded the Garrett line for numerous gains, but were not able to score until Frazee ran eighty yards, putting the ball on the five yard line. On the first play, Prentice carried the ball over the line for the first touchdown. Garrett came back with a place kick, giving Garrett 3 to Kendallville's 6. In the third quarter, Quarterback Young called Formation "O." Every fellow wanted to see this play work and every man on the team did his part. Jones circled left end. The opposing team downed Jones while Young faked the ball to Prentice who ran thirty yards straight through Garrett's line, for a touchdown. The goal was kicked, giving Kendallville a 13-3 advantage.

Trio of K. H. S. athletes win county meet. Rymal, Prentice, and Calkins take honors in track and field meet, scoring thirty-three out of a possible fifty-four points, and winning five firsts in six events.

These three athletes carried away the honors for the Kendallville High School in the annual field and track meet, held at county hub at Albion.

Four schools entered in the race for the individual medals and the beautiful pennant given as the grand prize by the county. MISS SODERLUND

Miss Soderlund came to us from Bellevue, Iowa. She is an excellent instructor and as coach of the girls' team she has proved her worth. With practically all new material she has developed a very promising team, much credit is due her. Here's hoping she will be with us next year.

VARSITY SQUAD

Let's give three cheers for the varsity. Without the steady practice of the squad no team could be a success. We can never give too much credit to the girls who come out to practice night after night with no reward but the joy they find in the game.

Top Row: Retha Koon, Alice Ogden, Miss Soderlund (Coach), Thelma Hart, Dorothy Maynard.

Middle Row: Eleanor Berhalter, Marjorie Throp, Helen Henry, Irene Koon, Matilda Adams, Natalie Roberts.

BASKET BALL

DOROTHY HART

Captain (Forward)

Dorothy has played regular for the last four years. She captained the girls through two very successful years and has played her last and best for K. H. S. Dorothy usually was there with the points.

MARGARET FRANCE

Margaret, as forward, showed her ability in helping to pile up the score. Her quick and clean playing featured in many of the games this year. Being a Junior, Margaret still has another year, which means more success to K. H. S.

RUTH MARY JOHNSON

This is Ruth Mary's first year to represent K. H. S. and, glad to say, she will have three more years to keep up the good work. Ruth, you surely worry your opponents. Let's play hard next year.

BASKET BALL

LUELLA TREESH

Let's give three cheers for Treeshy, as guard she was always on the job. Any person making a basket while being guarded by Luella surely earned it, for it was impossible to lose her. Being a Senior she leaves us this year.

OMA DAMAND

Here's to Oma. She has proved her ability to play basket ball throughout the entire year. Not many baskets could be made when Oma was on the job. Her passing is her specialty. She is a good fighter, but never loses her temper.

DONNA BRENNER

Here's to Donna, always on the job. As jumping center she was hard to beat and with her long strides kept her opponents on the run. Luck to you another year, Donna.

BASKET BALL

ETHEL WOLFE

Who is more faithful than Ethel? She has not missed a practice. All her fighting spirit wasn't for nothing, as she showed up fine in several games. Being a Junior she will be with us next year. Go to it, Ethel.

HELEN HENRY

Helen was just a freshie this year and had few opportunities of showing her ability, but when she did, she certainly made it count. Quick! Oh, My. Helen will be with us three more seasons, good luck to her.

IRENE KOON

Although Irene had only few opportunities of showing her ability as forward she sure showed Columbia City guards that she knew how to play the game. She was always ready and full of fight when she was called upon to play.

K. H. S. vs. AUBURN

On December 7th, the Girls' team with the insufficient practice of about one week, met their old foe, Auburn, on their home floor. Auburn had already had a number of victories and added another with a score of 27-6. The girls did exceedingly well considering the new team and lack of practice.

K. H. S. vs. GARRETT

The girls' team journeyed to Garrett December 21st where they met and were defeated by the fast Garrett team. The first half was a close fight, finishing 8-0 in Garrett's favor. The girls played hard the second half, but were unable to pile up the score. The game ended 33-12.

K. H. S. vs. AUBURN

Another defeat: January 4th the girls' team met their old foe again at Auburn. The game was a fast and hard one from start to finish. The girls played hard, but the forwards could not get away from their big guards. We lost to Auburn by the score of 13-8. We will say Auburn girls sure have the game down "pat."

K. H. S. vs. LIGONIER

Our first victory! The first half was rather slow with both sides holding their own. The second half our girls really showed that they could play basket ball and piled up the score until it stood 25-6 in Kendallville's favor. Donna Brenner showed much speed while Margaret France tipped in the baskets.

K. H. S. vs. COLUMBIA CITY

January 18th we met Columbia City on the home floor. They came as an undefeated team, but returned with their record broken. The score of the first half was 16-0. During the second half most of the subs got their work-out and the game ended 24-6 in our favor. Credit should be given Irene Koon and Dorothy Maynard, both subs, who played throughout the game.

K. H. S. vs. ANGOLA

January 25th, shows another victory to the team's credit as they defeated Angola 42-10. The whole team played at top speed, Donna and Ruth Mary showing exceptionally good team work. Angola girls were determined to win but they hadn't reckoned with our team.

K. H. S. vs. BUTLER

The game at Butler, February 5th, was a walk-away, score being 52-0. Butler's forwards could do nothing against our guards, who were always on the job. Margaret, one of our forwards, having sprained her ankle in the first of the game was unable to play so Irene Koon took her place and filled it with credit.

K. H. S. vs. ANGOLA

At Angola, February 8th, the girls won a hard fought battle with a score of 15-9. The first half our girls showed some pretty team work, but we had the small end of an 8-9 score. The second half the guards worked hard and the forwards managed to put in four more baskets and one free throw, making the score 15-9 in our favor.

K. H. S. vs. GARRETT

February 16th, we played Garrett on the home floor. Garrett girls were one fast team and kept our girls on the jump from start to finish. The first half was Garrett's with a score of 2-12. In the second half our girls came back strong, but were unable to take the lead. The game ended with a score of 17-11 in their favor. We lost to a mighty good team.

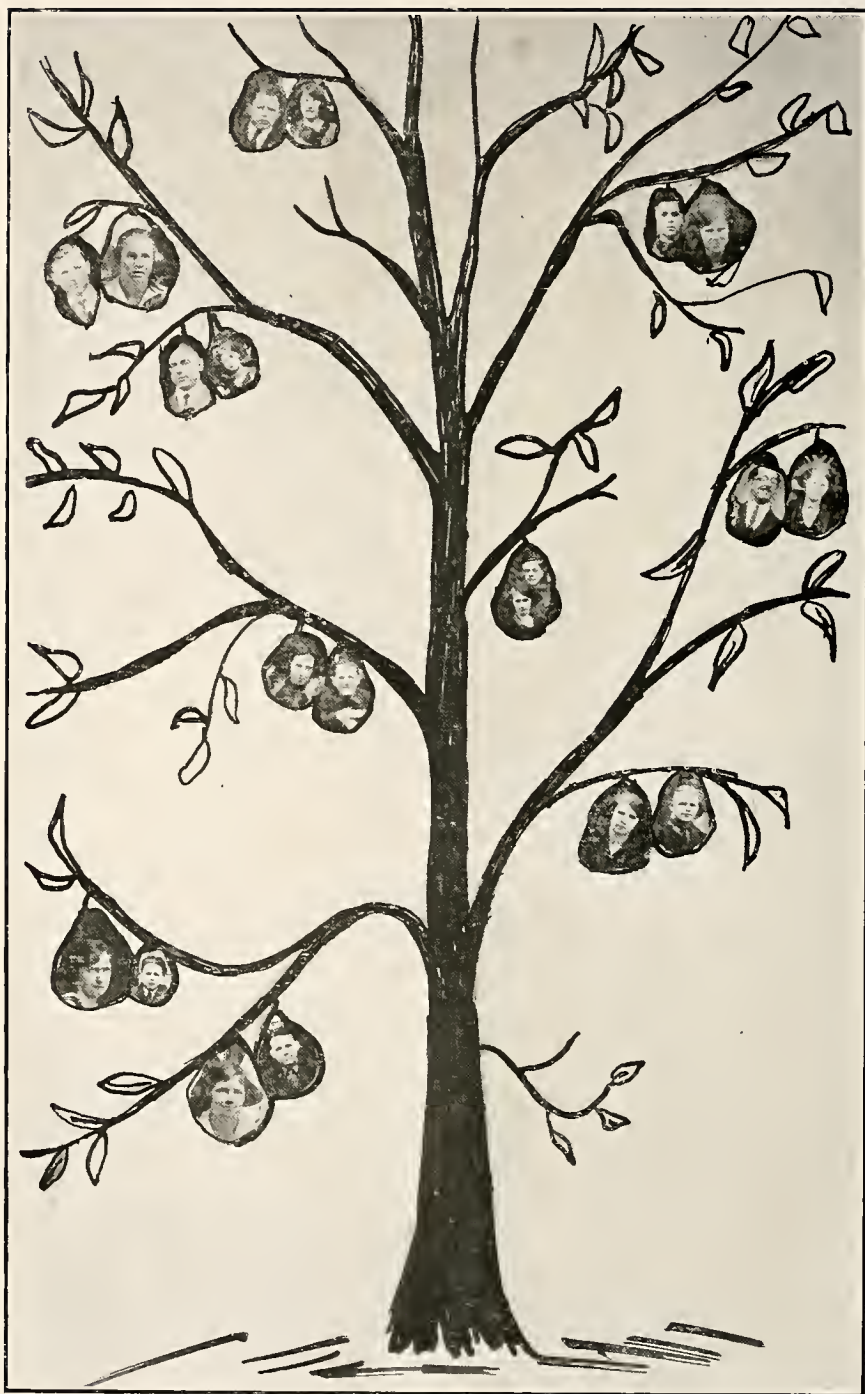

K. H. S. vs. LIGONIER

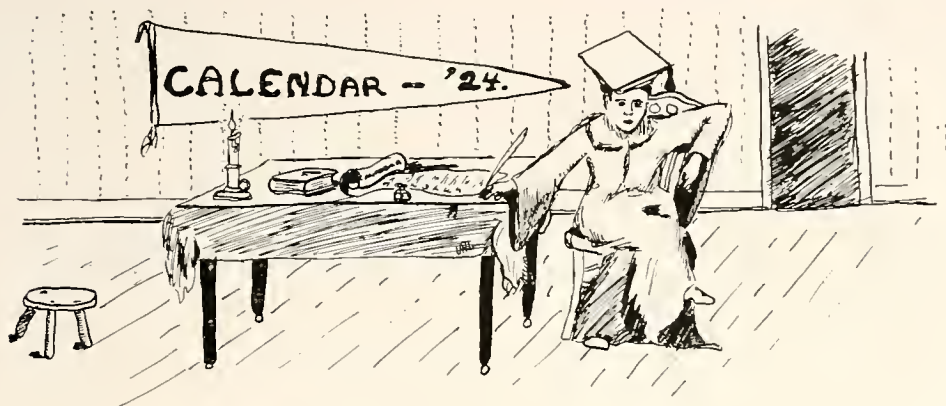

February 22nd, we played our last game at Ligonier. The game was a close one all through, both teams doing good work. The first half ended 9-4 in our favor, but in the second half by several free throws, Ligonier's score crawled up making the total 11-10 in our favor. In this game Ethel Wolfe, sub guard, showed fine work.

JOKES

Mr. Howerton—Dale, we know that a body in water displaces its own volume. In what terms do we find the result?

Dale Wible—Cubic pounds.

* * *

R. Weaver—Len, did you ever have your picture taken?

L. Failor—Yes, once.

R. W.—How's that?

L. F.—X-ray.

* * *

Dale Hart sleeping at the table in the back of the assembly—

Miss Paddack—Dale, if you wanted to sleep I would go to my seat, instead of coming back here every day.

Dale—Oh, but Miss Paddack, it is so much more comfortable here.

* * *

Jim Baker was taking snuff and Georgia Clark was watching the procedure very much interested. Finally Jim finished and went on talking as before. Georgia, still very fascinated, said in a disgusted tone, "Why don't you sneeze?"

* * *

In the seventeenth century a man by the name of Torriceli was experimenting with the barometer.

Mr. Howerton asked Doyle Todd what he did when he found that it failed to work.

Doyle thought a while and his face lighted with a smile as if the problem were solved, and he answered, "He telegraphed his brother to come immediately."

* * *

Guymon—How long can we say that slaves have been in America?

John Henry—Ever since it was discovered by Columbus.

* * *

Shaffer—Did you know that there is only one thing that keeps me off the stage?

Hork—No, I didn't know that. What could it be?

Shaffer—The MANAGER.

* * *

John Henry (describing England in Mr. Guymon's History class said—England is an island surrounded by water.

* * *

Latter Part of First Semester

We are watching carefully the development of a case between Miss Wilhite and Lance Shaffer. Lance got so affectionate he called her "Doris," and in return she gave him several love taps.

Miss Valenti—We are looking for a house where we shall be happy.
What tense is that Helen?

Helen Merrill—FUTURE.

✦ ✦ ✦

P. Pepple, discussing the dress of the Elizabethan period, finally wound up by saying that the people did not wear any costumes.

✦ ✦ ✦

Later in the Semester

Our hopes are shattered. She canned Lance from her Chorus class and this ended all relations, as far as we can tell.

✦ ✦ ✦

Mr. Pring (in bookkeeping)—John, why did I pay that price for the inner tube?

John Kellner—Because you didn't know any better.

✦ ✦ ✦

"Jake" went up to Guymon with a smile on his face and asked him, "What do you think of a fellow that would get up at twelve o'clock to go horseback riding?"

Guymon said, "Well, Jake, I suspect he wanted to go horseback riding a little worse than I would. Who was it?"

Jake could stand it no longer. He said, "Paul Revere," and broke out into a hearty laugh.

✦ ✦ ✦

Min.—What is the matter with the Freshmen?

Frosh—They're O. K.

Min.—Who's O. K.

Frosh—We Are!

✦ ✦ ✦

Miss Jennings—Winifred, read your composition.

W. Gaskill—I didn't have time to write a composition, so I just wrote a story.

✦ ✦ ✦

Miss Paddock said—All those wishing to take Chorus should see Miss Wilhite (in sixth assembly when the whole assembly started to hum, "Go You Old K'ville").

✦ ✦ ✦

M. Addicks—There is something on the floor.

D. Meyers—Well, pick it up and you may get on the courteous list.

M. A.—It's a rug, do you think I had better?

One night after football practice the fellows were telling how many books each had to take home every night to study. About all had had their say when Jake thought he would take his turn. He said, "Well, fellows, I haven't taken a book home since I dropped typewriting."

One of Miss Jennings' English classes was discussing the way in which different words are pronounced in different sections. Some one made the remark that in New England "Idea" was sometimes pronounced "idear." Ester Groh seized upon the opportunity to make known some of her wide knowledge and reported that she had even heard it pronounced that way in some parts of the U. S.

✦ ✦ ✦

In Algebra I a small Freshman was at the board and another one began to laugh at some joke the Freshman pulled, when Mr. Brumbaugh intervened and passed a law that no one should laugh unless he told them a joke himself.

✦ ✦ ✦

H. Milks (on April 1st)—Monk, you have a watch?

B. Bolton—April Fool. It's an Ingersoll.

✦ ✦ ✦

Brumbaugh—What is space?

R. Stevens—I can't think what it is now, but I have it in my head.

✦ ✦ ✦

Dave H. (coming to class at 8:31 and looking at clock)—That clock isn't any more right than I am.

✦ ✦ ✦

Genevieve—I'd like you to tell the story of the poor fish.

Bob T.—Do you want my life history?

✦ ✦ ✦

Miss Paddack—Put your monocle in your back eye.

✦ ✦ ✦

Jack—Do you play golf?

Thelma M.—Oh, dear no! I don't even know how to hold the caddie.

✦ ✦ ✦

Kenny L.—What do you call a man who runs an automobile?

Netty—It depends on how near he comes to hitting me.

✦ ✦ ✦

George P. (ordering meal at Thropp's)—Some cocoanut pie.

Counter man—Yes, sir, anything else?

George—Why, yes, put some a-la-mode on it.

✦ ✦ ✦

Velma K.—And oh, girl, he said last nite that I was worth my weight in gold.

Helen M.—Gee, how does it feel to be a millionaire?

✦ ✦ ✦

Dick B.—Seeing is believing you know.

Dorothy H.—Not always, I see you quite often, but seldom believe you.

✦ ✦ ✦

Helen M.—Do you believe in long engagements Maynard?

M. P.—Rather, why not be happy as long as possible?

A La Min!

He tore his hair in wild despair,
Then wrung his hands in pain,
He leaped up in the startled air,
And then came down again.
Nay, grieve not for the woeful lot,
And have for him no fears;
A maniac and yet he's not—
He simply leads our cheers.

* * *

Miss Katterjohn—Now boys and girls, there is a wonderful example in the life of an ant. Every day the ant goes to work and works all day. Every day the ant is busy. And in the end what happens?

Student—Some one steps on him.

* * *

That's What They All Say

Father: "I punished you merely to show my love for you."

"That's all right," sobbed the small boy, "but it's a good thing for you, I ain't b-b-big enough to return your l-l-love, that's all."

* * *

Reginald—Then I can have a date this evening?

Wilma K.—Yes, but don't forget that Auntie turns off the lights at ten.

R. M.—Thanks, I'll be there at ten, sharp.

* * *

Innocence (?)

"Mentor, don't be so curious. Don't you know that curiosity killed a cat?"

"What did the cat want to know, Mother?"

* * *

Helen M. (in U. S. History)—How did the natives get to Alaska?

Guymon—What natives?

H. M.—You know—the Eskimos.

* * *

Guymon (in Civics)—What kind of money does the government issue?

Thelma M. (with emphasis)—Dollar Bills.

* * *

"Begorra Mike, we can't go down that road."

"An' whoy not, Pat?"

"Sure, my bye, it says, 'Fer Pedestrians only,' an' we both be Oirishmen."

* * *

"Nurse, did you kill all the germs in baby's milk?"

"Yes, ma'am, I ran it thru the meat chopper twice."

* * *

Harry Young—But, Ruth, I thought we had planned to go to the show tonight?"

Ruth S.—Yes, I know, but I have changed our mind.

"Something Quieting"

Tiresome speaker at K Klub meeting—I want land reform, I want educational reform; I want—

George P. (interrupting)—Yes! you want chloroform.

* * *

Boy Friend—What shock absorbers do you use on your Ford?

Dave H.—The passengers.

No Study Tonight

Min.—What'll we do?

Paul G.—I'll spin a coin. If it's heads we'll go to a movie; if its tails we'll go to a dance; and if it stands on end we'll study.

* * *

The night was dark—the sky was blue,
Around the corner Dave Hosler flew,
And from his breast a dagger drew,
Took out his tobacco and cut off a chew.

* * *

Warren L. (going into a public bath house)—How much do you charge for a bath?

Keeper—20c for one or a dozen for $2.00.

W. L.—What do you think I want, a life membership?

* * *

Helen M. humming a little tune and having reached high G, caused Jack to speak up, "How often do you have those spells?"

Helen giving a little giggle replied, "Oh, about every five minutes."

Jack remained silent for four and a half minutes, and then asked Mr. Pring to be excused.

* * *

Harrison M.—You look good enough to eat.

Wilma W.—I do eat. Where shall we go?

* * *

Thelma R. (looking at automobile section in paper)—That Rickenbacker is good looking.

Thelma M. (looking at funny paper and thinking of tourney)—What team does he play on?

* * *

Miss Jennings—Is that story original?

Jerry Du Wan (indignantly)—Yes, ma'am, it is. I got it out of a book at the library.

* * *

Policeman (to man searching for something under street light)—What are you looking for?

Man—A knife I lost down the road a half mile.

Policeman—Why don't you go where you lost it, and look for it?

Man—Because it's lighter here.

Locating the Symptoms

Doctor (to sick lady)—Did your teeth chatter when you felt the chill coming over you?

Old Lady—I didn't notice, they were laying on the table.

✱ ✱ ✱

He Was Game

"No, darling, you mustn't have any more pudding, you would be ill."

"Well, give me another piece and send for the doctor."

✱ ✱ ✱

Teacher—There are proper and improper places to chew gum.

Oswald Hohman (interrupting)—But I thought the mouth was the only place.

✱ ✱ ✱

Very Simple

Little Girl (to Grandfather)—Grandpa, why don't you grow hair on your head?

Grandpa—Well, why doesn't grass grow on a busy street?

Little Girl—Oh, I see; it can't get up through the concrete.

✱ ✱ ✱

Everett Haynes—No, I don't have to go to bed early to catch up with sleep. I just sleep faster when I get there.

✱ ✱ ✱

M. Addicks (speaking of peasants)—There are a great many pheasants in this country.

✱ ✱ ✱

"What did Shakespeare write?"

Donald Hanes: "He wrote Midnight Summer's Dream."

✱ ✱ ✱

What is "walked" in this sentence? "He walked through the wilderness."

Harold Reed: "It is an adverb, because it tells how he went."

✱ ✱ ✱

Our idea of horse sense is to say "Nay" when a girl demands feed.

✱ ✱ ✱

"Speaking of famous springs," said the tramp to the tourist, "I bathed in the spring of '86."

PURPOSE

A purpose in life is as the helm of a ship—it shapes its direction to the goal. To have some definite aim, some target to shoot at, no matter how modest it may be—is already for, or well on the way, to achievement. In this store there is a purpose for every ambition.

THE ECONOMY OF QUALITY

Years of experience in quality merchandising supports our conviction that the best is the cheapest in the end. For this reason, we give preference to quality.

LOOK BEYOND THE SALE

The faith our customers have in this store is not entirely due to its style and service, but largely to the inviting efforts of our employees.
